Commander Bob Means

Hello from afar. I'm on vacation, but my operatives are keeping me abreast of local activity.

Thanks to our membership for the overwhelming show of support for me and your slate of officers (think Kim Jong-un). Seriously, I do thank you all, especially the 100% of support shown by officers, et al, for re-upping.

We continue to evolve as a Post and plan for our future. Your input is always welcome. This year your Board has voted to endorse and support the Fisher House event orchestrated by member, Jackie Tribolet. See details of this event on page 3. We will have our annual Veterans' Day dinner Tuesday, November 11, but without the auction. Any suggestions?

We are progressing with bar floor covering upgrades and hall restroom remodel.

Thanks for your ongoing support.

1st Vice Commander - Tom Beck

Well, it's May and hopefully the warmth and sun are here to stay, as we all know how brutally cold winters in Marin can be! What is a storm if you live in Marin? Rain and wind of course. If you are from anywhere east of the Rockies you get the humor.

The landscaping job that was taken on last year is taking hold. The plants are maturing nicely. I was eating breakfast with my wife across the street from the Post at Farm Fresh Local just yesterday and someone I know that also happened to be eating there with his wife mentioned how nice the landscaping looked. As many have heard in previous newsletters, the focus right now is on the hall bathrooms which will hopefully take our hall rental business to a new level, much like the landscaping and paint did last year.
