Up Coming Events

Veterans Day Nov 11, 2018. Make sure you have RSVPed for the 100th Anniversary of Armistice Day and Veterans Day at the Marin Civic Center. Music will begin at 9:30, followed by the Veterans Day Ceremony at 10. “Taps” will be played at the 11th hour of the 11th month; Rear Admiral Peter Gautier, Commander of Coast Guard Operations for California, will speak.

After the normal Veterans Day Ceremony at the Civic Center, there will be a lunch with music free for all Veterans and their immediate family, but you must RSVP. RSVP by calling 415-827-9900 or at the website: www.veteransday2018.org. The speaker will be Alden Mills, a former US Navy Seal Platoon commander.

General Membership Meeting and Executive Committee. There will be a Post 313 membership meeting Monday, Nov 5 at 9:30. We will have reports on our financial status and the work to restore the walkway and building near Joanie’s on Magnolia. Additionally, we will discuss filling Post 313 positions on the Executive Committee and Color Guard, responsibility for Breakfast preparations, and other matters. Please try to attend.

Post breakfast will be November 10 at 9 am.

Membership

Thanks to all members who have submitted their annual membership dues and to the members who have brought additional Veterans to the comradeship and service of Post 313. If you have not sent in dues, remember you can do so on line at:

Service, Community, Sacrifice

The American Legion is about service, community, and memory of sacrifice, and has been since its founding in 1919.

Post Member CJ Carillo recently aided the restoration of a trail map of Mt. Tamalpais which had been on a Mill Valley Store, and can now be found on the side of a downtown Mill Valley Building, as shown in the picture below.

St. Patricks Thrift Store in Larkspur has put up a special window for Veterans Day, with photos and memorabilia of local veterans including Post member Jim Hanratty. The Window of the St. Patricks store is well worth looking at in detail as shown below.

Auxiliary President Elena Bartley

Welcome to 'Fall' everyone! The recent change in the weather has been noticeable. It always makes me think of the "Holidays"! It's been a busy fall already. With Pauline's Birthday Party in October and Thanksgiving coming right up, it will be next year before you know it! Enjoy the Holiday Season and have a fabulous Thanksgiving!
